The Rural Home Makers Meet.

The Home Makers Club held a most enjoyable meeting Wednesday, Feb. 7, at the hospitable home of Miss Cora Wix, with eleven members and two visitors present.

The following program was rendered:

Roll call—Scripture reading.

Song—Club.

A Plan for February Work—Mrs. E. E. Morilla.

The Spring and Summer Sewing—Leader, Miss Ada Rain.

A Life Sketch of Geo. Washington—Miss Cora Wix.

Literary Work—Miss Dolla Rains.

Those present were Mesdames Milburn Tharp, Lem Sargent, Ben Wix, Seth Wix, Joe Knolls, James Steele, E. E. Morilla, Ed Moore; Misses Cora Wix, Ada and Dolla Rains. Visitors, Mrs. Joe Wix and Miss Tillie Wix.

The Club was in receipt of a letter from an absent member, Mrs. W. G. Mehafeff, who has recently left our community to make her home at Urbana, Ill. We are soon to lose another one of our most faithful members, Mrs. Lem Sargent, who goes to make her future home in Idaho. While we are sorry to lose these members, we wish them happiness and prosperity in their new homes.

After the business hour, Miss Tillie Wix marshalled us out into the yard and took a photograph of the Club.

Adjourned to meet March 7, with Mrs. Geo. Minnick.
